Please answer the following questions in order to register for the SGYW Junior Leaders Program in which you will have formation, and help preparing and running a younger girls' event:

Why would you like to join the SGYW Junior Leaders Program and be a leader at a Schoenstatt Girls' Event?

How will you go about being a leader and a role model for the younger girls? Name at least one concrete example.

Which actions do you think are inappropriate for a leader?

What are your expectations and wishes for the SGYW Junior Leaders' Program?

I can provide a prepared meal: dinner, lunch, dessert, snack for approx. 4-8 persons. (Sr M Luka will be in touch re what is needed)

Schoenstatt Girls and Young Women (SGYW) is an independent catholic youth organisation which is part of Schoenstatt International founded by Father Joseph Kentenich in Germany. Families, women, men, youth, as well as priests and sisters are members of the Schoenstatt Movement. Over 200 Schoenstatt Shrines all over the world are the spiritual centres of the Movement which is both Marian and apostolic. We foster community life, personal development through self-education, openness to the Church, and involvement in Christian action. SGYW is run by young women and assisted by the Schoenstatt Sisters of Mary and adult volunteers. (For more information, see
